SAFEGUARDING CUSTOMER INFORMATION

At Parish Members Credit Union, we protect consumer privacy by ensuring that only employees and directors who have a business reason for knowing information have access to it. For example, information in loan files can only be accessed by employees or directors who approve or collect loans.

All employees and directors are trained at least annually regarding the importance of safeguarding member information. The President will take disciplinary actions against any employee who violates our privacy policy and procedures.

We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard a member's nonpublic personal information.

If we change our policy or practice by, for example, adding a category if information we will disclose to a third party, we will notify existing members.
